

2010 BNP PARIBAS OPEN TRI-LEVEL CHAMPIONSHIPS

The BNP Paribas Open Tri-Level Championships is a doubles competition in which each of the 17 USTA Sections will be provided the opportunity to send a Team representing its Section to compete over the final weekend of the BNP Paribas Open. Each Team will be comprised a minimum of 12 players (6 men and 6 women) providing for one doubles team per gender in the 3.5, 4.0 and 4.5 ability levels to a maximum of 24 players (12 men and 12 women). It will be up to the discretion of each individual USTA Section as to how their Team will be selected. Sections must give notice of their intention to participate by Monday, November 30, 2009.

EVENT FORMAT AND SCHEDULE OF PLAY: Each doubles team will compete against the same ability and gender in separate compass draws. All matches will be the best of three sets with a Match Tiebreak being played in lieu of the 3rd set. Each match played will count and will accumulate points for the respective Section. Points will be awarded depending on the number of doubles teams in each compass draw. For example, if there are 10 doubles teams, the first place doubles team would receive 10 points, the second place doubles team would receive 9 points and the tenth place doubles team would receive 1 point. The Section that accumulates the highest total number of points will be crowned the BNP Paribas Open Tri-Level Champion and will be recognized on Stadium Court. Final schedule subject to change based on the final number of entries.
